

BANGARRA

P R E S E N T S

BLACK. vine III

Come along on July 11
the National Aboriginal & Islander Day of Celebration and enjoy the very best of Sydney's Aboriginal and Islander performers in the long awaited BLACKvine III.

The Sydney Town Hall will come alive in a joyous celebration of music, dance and song, featuring the talents of Bangarra Dance Theatre, with renowned performer and storyteller, Ningali Josie Crawford, David Page, Kirk Page, star of Police Rescue and Fallen Angels Leah Purcell, and actor about town Lillian Crombie. Be part of this modern day Dreaming, when the traditional and sacred aspects of Aboriginal and Islander life fuse with the contemporary expressions of urban Indigenous peoples to produce an astonishing and unmissable experience.

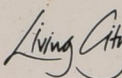

WHEN: Friday July 11, 8.00pm

WHERE: Sydney Town Hall

PRICES: $20/$15 concession (plus booking fee)

TICKETS: FirstCall on (02) 9320 9000

Greater Union Sydney Cinemas & Fish Records.

THIS IS A  EVENT FUNDED BY  AS PART OF THE STREETS ALIVE PROGRAMME. ALSO SPONSORED BY:

